

Social POLICY

Upala Agrícola, S.A. is an agro-industrial company dedicated to the production, packaging, and marketing of fresh pineapple.

We strive for the continuous improvement of working conditions and the work environment for the company's employees through:

Respecting and complying with current labor laws, as well as adopting the set of labor standards outlined in the ETI (Ethical Trading Initiative).

Base Code and any other commitments we voluntarily undertake.

Open and timely communication among company employees.

Training our staff and improving their working conditions to protect their health and physical well-being.

We demonstrate our social commitment through our engagement with suppliers and customers and our support for the communities where we operate.

We make information about our commitment to social responsibility available to interested parties
